Do you have a disability?

Are you interested in disability justice?

Great! You should apply to be a member of our Council!

The Indiana Statewide Independent Living Council is looking for more people with disabilities to be on our Council.

The Indiana Statewide Independent Living Council is also called INSILC.

We are a statewide disability advocacy organization in Indiana.

Most of our Council Members are people with disabilities.

All of our employees are people with disabilities.

We follow the Independent Living Philosophy.

The Independent Living Philosophy believes that we know exactly what we need to succeed.

The Independent Living Philosophy knows that we are valuable members of our communities.

You can learn more about the Independent living philosophy at <https://ncil.org/about/aboutil/>.

We are looking for applicants who are people with disabilities and multiply-marginalized.

Examples of being multiply-marginalized are being a person with a disability and a person of color, a woman, an immigrant, etc. or all of these.

If you have any questions about multiple-marginalization, please contact us.
